

Handwritten text in red ink, likely a list or notes, located in the upper right corner of the photograph. The text is partially obscured by light-colored spots and is difficult to read.

A circular stamp in the bottom right corner of the photograph. The text around the perimeter of the stamp is partially legible and appears to be "PHOTOGRAPHED BY" and "1935".